Cultural Centers

Indian Pueblo Cultural Center
The Indian Pueblo Cultural Center showcases distinctive art, history and culture of New Mexico’s 19 pueblos. Its museum tells the story of the New Mexico Pueblo Indians. The restaurant serves authentic Native American food. Jewelry, pottery, leather crafts and paintings are on display and available for sale. On weekends you can enjoy free Native American dances and craft demonstrations.

National Hispanic Cultural Center
The National Hispanic Cultural Center is dedicated to preserving the rich artistic and cultural heritage integral to the Hispanic community worldwide. The center features a visual arts museum, a performing arts center and an amphitheater, plus educational community outreach programs.

Sky City Cultural Center
The Sky City Cultural Center and Haak’u Museum strive to preserve Native American traditions while providing insight into the unique history of the Acoma Pueblo Indians. The Cultural Center offers guided tours, Acoma pottery & Native American crafts for sale by local artisans, cultural exhibits, and a host of performances and events.

A Few Attractions...

Albuquerque Biological Park
The BioPark consists of three separate facilities: the Rio Grande Zoo is one of the leading zoos in the nation; the Albuquerque Aquarium features a 285,000-gallon shark tank, an eel cave and other aquatic displays; the Rio Grande Botanic Garden includes a 10,000 sq. ft. conservatory, formal gardens, a Children's Fantasy Garden and a Heritage Farm.

Sandia Peak Aerial Tramway
The world's longest single-span aerial tramway transports visitors above deep canyons and breathtaking terrain via a 2.7 mile cable to the serenity of the mountain's 10,400 foot peak for a view that encompasses up to 15,000 square miles.

Petroglyph National Monument
The monument contains the world’s largest accessible collection of prehistoric rock art. More than 17,000 ancient petroglyphs are carved into the remnants of dormant volcanoes on Albuquerque’s west side.

Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta®
Each October Albuquerque hosts the world’s largest hot air balloon festival. Expect to see over 700 balloons at a time flying high in the sky. Don’t forget your cameras! For a complete list of events in the Albuquerque area please visit www.itsatrip.org/events
